Tolerance Education Centres communities gathered in a traditional event

Tolerance Education Centres communities gathered in a traditional event January 26 was the day when Culture centre in Ariogala hosted the traditional event “The Stories of Jews Who Lived in Lithuanian Towns“. This conference was organized to commemorate the International Holocaust Remembrance Day. The 7th national conference for schools’ communities was again organised in Raseiniai county, Ariogala town. The aim of the event is to foster historical memory, remember the flourishing Jewish communities and their contribution to building the state of Lithuania, and to commemorate the victims of the Holocaust. The conference was attended by educators and students from 27 Lithuanian schools and more than 300 participants. There were representatives from Department of National Minorities under the Government of the Republic of Lithuania, Kaunas Jewish community, Raseiniai county municipality. The conference was organised by the International Commission and Ariogala Gymnasium Tolerance Education Centre, partially supported by the Good Will Foundation.
