ALYTUS

Alytus “Putinų“ Gymnasium

Alytus Putinų Gymnasium held lessons to commemorate International Holocaust Remembrance Day, an event observed in many countries around the world. The students participated in the global initiative # MesPrisimename / # WeRemember.

Alytus St. Benedict (Šv. Benedikto) Gymnasium

On January 27–28, eighth-grade students watched the documentary film "Paskutinė stotis" (The Last Station, directed by Rimas Bružas) during their Lithuanian language and literature classes. Later, the students worked on a project called "Path of Remembrance". They had to plan a walking route in Alytus with five stops that would remind them of the history of the Jewish people who lived in the town. They also had to come up with a name for each stop and present the object located next to each stop.

KAUNAS

Kaunas Art Gymnasium

During Russian language classes, the students of the Kaunas Art Gymnasium watched the film "Everything is Illuminated." Following the screening, a discussion was held about the film.

Kaunas “Saulės“ Gymnasium

Kaunas Saulės Gymnasium organized an integrated Russian-German language class. During the class, students watched the short film “Porcelain Unicorn“, discussed the sensitive topic of the Holocaust, and answered questions. The activities fostered students' empathy, historical awareness, and critical thinking skills.

KĖDAINIAI

Kėdainiai „Vaivorykštė“ kindergarten

The posters, paintings were created after discussions about human rights, the respect for other people, nationalities and religions.

MARIJAMPOLĖ

On January 27, the students of Marijampolė Petro Armino pro-gymnasium watched and discussed two films: "The Vilna Ghetto" and "Stutthof Concentration Camp". Subsequently, students were tasked with creating visual representations that captured the film screenings' most profound emotional impact. Their creative works reflected suffering, injustice, human strength, and hope, and the activity helped them to understand historical events better and fostered empathy and respect for historical memory.

PALANGA

Vladas Jurgutis Pro-Gymnasium in Palanga

On January 26-27, lessons about the Holocaust were held for students in grades 5-8 at the pro-gymnasium. Eighth-grade students also watched a film called "Muranovas - Northern District" and discussed it afterwards.

Palanga Jewish Community, Palanga City Municipality, Palanga Old Gymnasium Students

Members of the Palanga Jewish community, along with representatives of the Palanga City Municipality and students of the Palanga Old Gymnasium, who take part in an international project called "Children of the Holocaust". Illuminating the Shadows of Lithuanian History" visited the grave of Holocaust victims in the Palanga City Civil Cemetery. During the commemoration, people lit candles and placed memorial pebbles.

VILNIUS

Jonas Ivaškevičius Youth School

On January 26-27, the school organized integrated lessons of history and ethics “January 27 - International Holocaust Remembrance Day. Crimes against humanity. Righteous Among the Nations" for grades 9-10. Other classes participated in film screenings and then discussed them.

Vilnius Vasilijus Kačialovas Gymnasium

On January 27, the school held ethics classes for students in grades 11 and 12 to remember International Holocaust Remembrance Day. The classes on "Standing Aside or Standing Beside?," used teaching materials from Yad Vashem, the International School for Holocaust Studies.

Vilnius “Žaros“ Gymnasium

On January 27, the Lithuanian language classes talked about the Holocaust. They focused on books and publications about children during this time. In the senior grades, the film "We Remained Human" was shown and discussed. The film is about a Holocaust survivor Fania Brancovska.

Vilnius „Ryto“ Progymnasium

History and English lessons were organized for the students which were named “We Remember”. Students created the posters with the Tree of Remembrance and added to these posters some stories of the Holocaust victims.